

SCQHA YEAR END AWARD RULES

The SCQHA monitors the AQHA Rule Book in order to align its program with current AQHA award practices.

1. The SCQHA Points Secretary is responsible to maintain up to date and accurate records of points earned by eligible horses and/exhibitors and owners as official show results are received from each approved show.
2. In order to qualify for any Year End Award:
 - a. Exhibitors and Owners must be current SCQHA and/or SCQHYA members to qualify for any youth or amateur division awards
 - b. Owners must be current SCQHA and/or SCQHYA members to qualify for any open division awards
 - c. horses in open divisions -OR- horse/rider combinations in youth or amateur divisions must have accumulated a minimum of 10 SCQHA points.
3. All-Around Awards. The SCQHA All-Around Award and Reserve All-Around Awards are presented to the top two point-earning horses in the open division and the top two point-earning horse/rider combinations in the amateur division, the select amateur division, and the youth division.
 - a. All-around winners:
 - i. must earn a minimum of twelve (12) halter points and a minimum of fifteen (15) points per category in at least three of the AQHA performance categories, and
 - ii. earned the most points within the pool of qualified exhibitors.
 - b. Only Select classes count for earning a Select All-around award. Should the Select class be combined with the amateur all-age class, points earned by the exhibitor will count toward their Select all-around eligibility.
 - i. If a Select exhibitor participates in halter, ranch riding, or jumping, those classes will count toward Select All-around eligibility even though they are not offered as a Select class.
 - c. Youth all-around awards are presented to qualifying exhibitors 18 years and under.
 - d. In the event of a tie, the All-Around or Reserve All-Around will be determined as followed:

The horse in the open, or the horse/rider combination in the amateur, youth, or select amateur divisions who:

- i. earned points in the greatest number of classes,
 - ii. won over the greatest number of horses,
 - iii. earned the most points in performance classes, will be declared the all-around winner.
4. High Point and Reserve High Point Awards. Presented to the top two point-earning horse/rider combinations in the Level 1 amateur, Rookie Amateur, Level 1 Youth, Rookie Youth, and AQHA Walk/Jog divisions.
 - a. Exhibitors must have competed in at least three different classes and accumulated a minimum of 10 SCQHA points per class.
 - b. In the case of a tie, the horse/rider combination which:
 - i. earned points in the greatest number of classes,
 - ii. won over the greatest number of horses,
 - iii. earned the most points in performance classes, will win the High Point Award
5. High Point Western, English, and Ranch Horse. Presented to the top point-earning horse in each division.
 - a. To determine Western High Point, a horse's points from Trail, Western Pleasure, Horsemanship, and Showmanship, regardless of division (youth, amateur or open) or Level, will be tallied. The horse earning the most points will be awarded the High Point Western Horse.
 - b. To determine English High Point, a horse's points from Hunter Under Saddle or Working Hunter Under Saddle, Hunt Seat Equitation, Hunter Hack, Equitation Over Fences, and Working Hunter, regardless of division (youth, amateur or open) or Level, will be tallied. The horse earning the most points will be awarded the High Point English Horse.
 - c. To determine Ranch High Point, a horse's points from Ranch Trail, Ranch Riding, Reining, Working Cow Horse, and Cutting, regardless of division (youth, amateur or open) or Level, will be tallied. The horses earning the most points will be awarded the High Point Ranch Horse.
 - d. In the event of a tie, the horse which
 - i. Earned points in the greatest number of classes
 - ii. Participated at the most shows, will win the High Point Award

6. Class Champion and Reserve Champion awards will be presented to the top two point-earning horses in open classes, and the top two point-earning horse/rider combinations in the youth and amateur divisions for each class offered at SCQHA sponsored or approved shows.
 - a. horses in open divisions -OR- horse/rider combinations in youth or amateur divisions must have accumulated a minimum of 10 SCQHA points per class.
 - b. In the case of a tie, the horse in the open, or the horse/rider combination in the amateur, amateur select, or youth divisions:
 - i. earned points in the greatest number of shows,
 - ii. won over the greatest number of horses, will win the class award.

5. Small Fry Awards. To be considered for a Small Fry Year End Award, exhibitors must have accumulated a minimum of 10 points in SCQHA approved shows.

Small Fry Class Awards. Presented to the top two qualified exhibitors earning the highest number of points in small fry classes at SCQHA sponsored and approved shows.

Small Fry Champion. Awarded to the qualified exhibitor who earns the greatest number of points in all small fry classes.

- a. A Small Fry is a youth exhibitor 10 years old or younger.
- b. Small Fry exhibitors cannot show in loping classes.
- c. In the case of a tie, the exhibitor which:
 - i. earned points in the greatest number of classes,
 - ii. won over the greatest number of horses,
 - iii. earned the most points in performance classes, will be declared the winner.